Re: Letter Of Reference

To Whom It May Concern,

The Cessna Aircraft Company, Orlando Citation Service Center needed a new brochure developed that showcased the latest additions to the second largest Cessna Citation service facility network in the nation. We asked The Outer Limit Studios to provide us with some ideas for a new brochure to send out to our prospective clients. We where so happy with their graphic design work, we developed two brochures with them. One brochure for our American clients, and one for our Latin American clientele. Currently we are working with The Outer Limit Studios on a new version for our website as well. If you are looking for solid quality, look no further.
