Stephan:

Here is the testimonial you requested:

"I would like to thank you for the wonderful presentation you provided to our members recently entitled "Attracting Clients with Your Website and Social Media Marketing." Our members' comments regarding the program ranged from very informative, very timely, will help increase my online presence, helped with ideas on marketing materials, flyers, and calling cards to I plan to implement his suggestions are certainly an indication that the program was what our members were expecting. When 93% of the attendees said they would recommend this class to a colleague, then as the Education Director, I know that I have provided them the educational value they deserve. Your enthusiasm and energy really brought the content to life and certainly kept the attention of those who participated and the examples you provided made the concepts easier for the participants to follow. Thank you again for bringing this program to ORRA."
